to be scalped? Manager Lou Boudreau's American league pace-setters have lost their first crucial series of the year and Bob Feller shows no signs of returning to the form that made him one of the greatest pitchers in baseball. These two factors have cast a cloud over a once rosy outlook.

Are the Cleveland Indians ready

The New York Yankees came into Cleveland Monday night three and a half games off the pace. They knocked off South aw Ace Gene Bearden, lost a 5-2 game to Sam Zoldak Tuesday, beat Lon Black in 11 innings Wednesday and yesterday thrashed Feller 4-0, Cleveland now has lost eight of its last 12 starts.

Philadelphia's third-place Athletics pulled to within two games of the Indians by nosing out the Browns, 6-5, in a night game at St. Louis.

A four-run eighth-inning rally highlighted by Ferris Fain's triple and Barney McCoskey's two-bagger enabled the A's to win. The Browns culled only three hits off three Athletic pitchers but 13 bases on balls kept them in the game.

The up and coming Boston Red Sox divided a doubleheader with the White Sox in Chicago, winning the second game, 8-5, after Bill Wight pitched the White Sox to a 3-1 victory in the opener.

Ted Williams smashed his 14th and 15th homers of the year and drove in four runs to spark the Red Sox's nightcap triumph. The Red Sox slugger also boosted his league- (second leading batting mark from .413 to darkness)

The St. Louis Cardinals stormed to within a half game of the firstplace Boston Braves in the National league pennant race by trouncing the Braves, 11-2, in a night game at Boston.

The Brooklyn Dodgers dumped the Pittsburgh Pirates twice, 6-2 and 8-6, at Brooklyn. The second game was halted after the Pirates' half of the eighth inning because of darkness. The twin setbacks dropped the Pirates from second to third place and moved the Dodgers from sixth to fifth.

At New York, the Chicago Cubs and the Giants divided a twin bill. the Giants winning the first game, 3-2, and the Cubs the second, 11-2. A scheduled day game between

Washington and Detroit and a night game between Cincinnati and Philadelphia were postponed because of

A new champion will be crowned Sunday since Art Wall, winner of the tournament at Pittsburgh Field club last year is not competing. Wall is headed for Palo Alto, Calif., as a member of the Duke university links team for the national intercollegiate championship which opens

Another notable absentee is Howard Everitt, 1946 champion from the Philadelphia Manufacturers club. Everitt was scheduled to participate but withdrew yesterday for personal business reasons and will be replaced by Danny Moore, alternate Pittsburgh sectional qualifier.

Four former Pennsylvania amateur kings are in the field. H. B. (Duff) McCullough, Jr., Huntingdon Valley; M. L. (Chick) Beyer, Jr., Aronimink, both of Philadelphia; Harry Raverstick. Jr., Lancaster, and Francis Allan, Pittston, will be trying to repeat as champions.

GOP Convention

MRS. DEWEY IS PROUD, HAPPY

BY HAL BOYLE

Philadelphia, June 25 (AP) - Convention sidelights:

There is a look that doesn't come every day into a woman's eyes. It came at 8:19 (EST) last night into the eyes of one woman.

She is a handsome dark-haired woman and was wearing a pert black hat-the kind men like because it ain't foolish-a neat black suit, and a rope of pearls.

She stood on a platform in Convention hall beside a man who had ist won the Republican Presidential comination. He was also the first Republican since the party's founding in 1856 who had gained a second nomination after losing to a Demo-

The woman was Mrs. Thomas E. Dewey, who once told an interviewer that the only career she desired was to be "my husband's wife,"

And she was living up to her career. As Governor Dewey threw up a confident hand to the cheering crowd, she turned on him the look that every husband who loves his wife sometimes hopes to see in her

Look Of Loyalty Her eyes said in shiny eloquence:

"Look at my man. Isn't he something? My Tom. They're cheering you again.'

And she knew that every woman in the vast crowd of 14,000 people all women see these things in other prison last October. women's eyes. And so do a lot of men, too.

I don't envy Tom Dewey his title and his worrisome campaign ahead. But I do envy him that look of proud loyalty that Frances Hutt Dewey gave him.

The average man gets it from his wife only on their night out together when he tells a snooty waiter to take her steak back and cook it the way she said. Her hero! Or maybe when he reaches down their small child's gasping throat and pulls out the chicken bone choking her.

Other Women Happy

Senator Arthur Vandenberg may have wondered at the last moment whether he shouldn't have made a real grab for the nomination that would have crowned his long career of public service. There were many, many people who wanted him to.

But I think Mrs. Vandenberg was completely honest when she said she hoped her husband wouldn't get it. Her man, after all, had given years trying to build an America and a one-world-for-all he believed in. She knew he would keep

I think, being all my life fundamentally juvenile and in love with my own wife, Frances, that in thisour busy civilization—the thing that wives desire most is to be more with their husbands, and to share more in
